FLOODS AFFLICT MAINLAND AREA

Heavy Rains Cause Much Trouble Around Vancouver
—Traffic Blocked at Port
Coquitlam and Elsewhere

FORT COQUITLAM, B.C., Oct. 28.—Traffic to New Westminster is suspended this morning owing to floods in the Coquitlam River. The Canadian Pacific double-track bridge over the river here has been washed away, and debris at the eastern end of the bridge is necessary to dialogue it. The Gregory Tire Company's plant is entirely surrounded by water, pool room proprietors, near the agricultural hall, are shifting their equipment to higher ground, and the C. P. R. roundhouse is the only high point. The river, as is its wont, rises very rapidly, and falls again very steadily, rain. It is an uncommon thing hereabouts for the residents to do a sudden shift. Several houses on the north side are partially flooded.

NORTH VANCOUVER, Oct. 28.—North Vancouver is experiencing the worst flood known in this district for fourteen years. The bridge at Mosquito Creek has been completely swept away, the last fragments disappearing at about 7:30 o'clock this morning. The dam has been demolished, between twelve and fourteen inches of water are sweeping along over the B. C. Electric track in that vicinity, and cars are only running as far as Buick Avenue.

As a result of the damage, the little community of the Coquitlam, situated miles from the city, has been cut off from communication.

VANCOUVER, Oct. 28.—City Engineer Fellowes reports that the heaviest rainfall in many years has been recorded in the past twenty-four hours. Owing to this downpour the water in Seymour Creek has risen eight feet, and is over a concrete wall built last year. The telephone wires communicating with the waterworks at Seymour Creek are down.

The first snow of the season has fallen at the 3,000-foot level in the hills around the intake. There are 18 inches of snow on the divide at the 4,000-foot level, and at Burwell Lake, a month ago there was 18 inches deep.

City Engineer Fellowes expresses the fear that if warm rains ensue, the melting snows will cause floods.

SENATE MAY RAISE
U.S. TARIFF DUTIES

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—Senators of the agricultural bloc have decided on a schedule of rates on agricultural products which they will ask when the Senate finance committee resumes hearings on the permanent tariff bill on November 1. They have decided to ask even higher rates than in the present Bill as it passed the House.

Opponents say they will ask that the current rate of the emergency tariff be continued, that an increase of five cents per bushel be made on the rates for barley and that rates be placed on livestock about equal to the emergency rates.

The action of the agricultural senators probably means that rates on agricultural products about on a level with the present emergency rates will be forced into the tariff law, thus aiming a hard blow at agricultural importations from Canada and elsewhere.

HAPSBURG GIVES FAILURE VERSION

Says He Withdrew His Troops
Rather Than Start Civil War —Reported Demand From
"Little Entente"

BUDAPEST, Oct. 28.—Immaculately clad in the uniform of a Hungarian general, former Emperor Charles, a prisoner in the hands of the people over whom he made an abortive attempt to establish sovereignty, today issued the following statement through the Associated Press correspondent:

"I was sure my people would offer resistance, so I gave orders to withdraw when the Government troops opened fire. Nothing can persuade me to provoke civil war. I trust Providence and the future will bring harmony between the Hungarian nation and sovereignty."

Count Andras, Dr. Gratz, and Deputy Rakovsky, associated with ex-Emperor Charles in his attempt to reach the capital, are under strong guard in the military prison here. The three were placed under arrest in Eszterhazy Castle, Charles opposing their seizure stubbornly.

When officers tried to lead away the ministers, Charles offered them his sword, saying:

"If you arrest them, arrest me also."

One of the officers saluted and replied: "I cannot arrest your majesty."

The ministers then were left undisturbed until Charles and Zita were conducted to the Abbey of Thany.

Defeated by Students

Former Emperor Charles' return to Budapest met an effective barrier at Bucovas last Sunday morning when a band of university students, armed with sticks and stones, held up his progress until the regular Hungarian forces wheeled into line. Hungary's fate hung in the balance during that time, it is asserted here.

The students had entrenched themselves along a ridge of hills and received from the supporters of Charles with a hot machine gun fire. Military leaders of Charles' expedition reported that the students' position must be bombarded.

"I am sorry for the poor boys," he is quoted as saying. "Try to persuade them that resistance is hopeless."

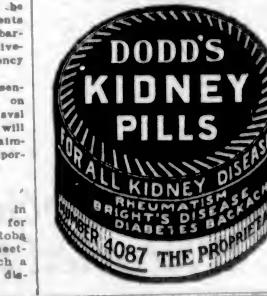

Parades began, but in the meantime Government troops were hurried forward from Budapest and occupied the Ridge held by the students. As a result it was found when Charles gave the order to attack that the battle was already lost.

Little Entente Ultimatum

PRAGUE, Oct. 28.—Former Emperor Charles must be surrendered to the Little Entente within thirty-six hours or face an ultimatum from the members of this combination of states, which it has decided to present to the Hungarian Government in Budapest. Deputy Machado declared last night that the ultimatum would be presented to-day.

Leaders of the political parties forming the coalition ministry of this country have decided the Government will introduce a bill in parliament decreeing the confiscation of estates owned by Count Julius Andraze, Deputy Rakovsky and Count Albert Apponyi, located in Czechoslovakia.

As a precautionary measure, martial law has been proclaimed in the

LIQUOR LAW AMENDMENTS

There is no indication of the extent to which the Liquor Act will be amended during the present session of the Legislature, but we assume that any amendments will not be insisted upon by the Government, but left, as in the case of the present law, to the good sense of the House. It is anticipated that there will be a tightening up of the methods which in the past have made it too easy for visitors to get permits. One factor in connection with the operation of the law which will have a bearing on its continued popularity in the facilities offered to the people to get what they want. This is a feature which demands some reform, and, so far as that reform can be brought about by the Legislature itself, there should be a definite expression of opinion. Under the present legislation it is permissible to all hotel occupants to have liquor in their rooms, but they are not allowed to consume liquor with their meals in the hotel dining-rooms. This distinction is a bad feature of the law, for it gives rise to secret drinking, which, in the course of time, may be carried to objectionable lengths.

We do not think there is any very general desire that facilities should be made available for the consumption of all kinds of liquors at meals in hotels, or clubs, but the question of allowing beer and light wines to be used under such circumstances deserves consideration. With the experience of over four months' operation the Liquor Board should be in a position to advise the Government and the Legislature what are the classes of liquor in demand and in how much the restriction on the sale of beer and malt liquors is encouraging the use of spirituous drinks. In many of its aspects the liquor law is proving a workable measure, but, so that abuses do not creep in through its operation, the Liquor Board should report from time to time on measures which, by legislative enactment, will tend to make the law more effective and more likely to satisfy public opinion. In Quebec the operation of liquor control is even more effective than it is in this Province and there may be some of the features in the Quebec Act which can be borrowed by our Legislature.

Another matter which should be considered during the present session is that affecting the right of the Government to impose a tax on liquor imported for private consumption. An effort is being made to impose what amounts to a tax of 50 per cent on liquors which are legitimately brought into the Province under the Federal law. At the time this right was claimed, by the inclusion of a clause in the Liquor Act, this newspaper expressed the opinion that it was ultra vires of the Province. The matter will eventually come before the Privy Council, and until it does it is not good policy of the Government, since its right has not been defined, to institute a search into cases of importations and attempt to impose what can only be regarded as an exorbitant tax. The Government is adopting a strangely irreconcilable policy in this regard. Premier Oliver and his colleagues are staunch supporters of Mr. Mackenzie King in the present Federal election, and, with him, believe that tariff for protection should be abolished. At the same time they have imposed a 50 per cent tariff on privately imported liquors, thus out-herding the Federal Government in his respect.

ELK LAKE PROPERTY

The dispute between Victoria and Saanich relative to the future of the Elk Lake watershed area can be settled out of hand by a decision to subdivide and sell that property. As a public park it might be a decade before it became a popular resort. As a farming area it could be developed at once and add to the productiveness of the district, as well as enabling Saanich to reap the revenue it desires through taxation. Victoria is in a position where it needs money, and, properly handled, some hundreds of thousands of dollars could be secured by the sale of this Elk Lake property. It may be said that at some future date Elk Lake will again be required for the purposes of a water supply. That is a possibility that ought not to be ignored, but the question of the responsibility of this city is quite another matter. The expenditure on Elk Lake when it served as a source of water supply for the city fell on the citizens of Victoria. It is only in asso with this city now through any revenue which can be derived from it, but it will be a far greater tangible asset through its conversion into ready money which is sorely needed by this municipality. Under the circumstances it is difficult to see how Victoria owes any prospective duty to Saanich in retaining the watershed for use as such if the eventuality should ever arise. From another viewpoint the advantages accruing through the establishment of a public park there would be problematical, and, as such, it would be a source of continual expenditure to this city.

The city should subdivide the property and put it on the market as farmland acreage, allowing easy terms for purchase and setting the price in proportion to the productive value of the land, so that actual opportunity for the building up of an agricultural community there may be available. On its part Saanich should see that when the land comes into private ownership it should not be unduly taxed, as has been the case with other agricultural lands in that municipality. We feel assured that the sense of this community is that an early opportunity should be sought to realize the value of the Elk Lake property, and we believe this course would be heartily endorsed by almost every property owner in the community. If the City Council has any qualms on the subject let it put a referendum before the people at the December elections.

With indebtedness representing some millions of dollars falling due in 1922 this municipality has got to cast about for ways and means to meet its financial obligations. Substantial help would be derived from the sale of the Elk Lake property, and, irrespective of Saanich's application for power to tax that land, a decision to sell it should be considered without any further delay.

CAMPAIGN INFLUENCES

The Federal campaign is waxing hotter in Ontario and the other Eastern Provinces although its breath has only just touched British Columbia and the Prairies. The political ramifications being indulged in, usually the ebullition of superheated enthusiasm, are being handled to and fro, but the main thing is that in every political speech the chief theme is the tariff, and more and more it is becoming the central and the only national issue of the campaign. Mr. Mackenzie King, who has made overtures to the Farmers to join their political fortunes with those of the Liberals, has shown a tendency to lose sight of his place where his own immediate interests are concerned. Speaking in North York, the constituency for which he is running, he describes one of his opponents, the Farmers' candidate, as standing for class government. Moreover, he went further and said the Farmers' movement was not in the real interests of the farmers themselves. At the same time Mr. Crerar, speaking in New Brunswick, disclaims the reports of an alliance between himself and Mr. King, and characterizes them as a tissue of misstatements. Whatever truth there may be in the possibility of a combination between the Farmers and the Liberals, all the public are aware of is that their policies tend towards a common end, one installment of which is a reciprocity pact with the United States.

Mr. T. A. Crerar has been busy denying that his followers are disloyal though none of his opponents have made that statement. What has been said is that a great number of them, being former American citizens, very naturally have their thoughts directed towards the United States in matters of trade and believe that the fiscal policy of this country should be closely interwoven with that of the country which gave them birth, or asylum, during many years. It is not disloyal for any immigrant to this Dominion to love the country of his birth better than that of his adoption, and so long as he obeys the laws and respects the institutions of the country in which he lives he is a good citizen. It would be a sorry commentary on human nature if mere change of environment destroyed a sense of patriotism. Mr. Meighen, in saying that the soil from which many of the Prairie dwellers sprung is not truly Canadian as that which many others throughout the country can claim, merely enunciates an obvious truth, and one which explains, in a measure, the enthusiasm of the Farmers Party for reciprocity with the United States and finally the extension of the privileges of free trade to that country.

It is for the people of Canada as a whole to say what will be their future fiscal policy. In reaching a decision they should not be dictated to by any class, and they should regard the matter purely from the standpoint of what is for the ultimate good of Canada, irrespective of the fortunes of political parties. Above all, the Dominion must maintain her economic independence. This she cannot keep by truckling to the domination of American trade, and that domination is certain if Canadian markets are to be thrown wide open to the enterprise, ingenuity and mass production of the factories of the United States. It was a knowledge of the dangers which threatened that led the people to defeat the Reciprocity Treaty of 1911. The Americans at this moment are making no overtures for reciprocity with this country. On the contrary, they are erecting higher and higher barriers against our products, to prove, as it were, that a nation of over one hundred millions, capable of productive effort greater than the world has ever known, is pledged irrevocably to the protective principle. Because of her small population and the embryonic condition of so many of her industries, Canada cannot expect to obtain a quick pro quo in any trade agreement with the United States. Mr. Crerar, if he is a student of political economy, knows this full well, and Mr. Mackenzie King, who has lived and labored in the industrial life of the United States, knows it better still. Mr. Crerar is dominated by and is fighting for the views which prevail among a powerful section of his followers and which may be summed up in the desire for closer trade relations with America. On the other hand, Mr. Mackenzie King has had to accept the issue of the campaign as dictated by the Farmers and willingly accepted by Premier Meighen. For that reason the Liberals are opposing the protective principle but they have yet to say in detail what they would do if returned to power.

The Lollipop

Sir:—Our attention has been called to an article appearing in a recent number of your paper under the heading "Brands Lollipops a Health Menace." This article, which is a report of an alleged interview with City Health Officer Price, goes on to say:

"That the lollipop is a menace to the health of Victoria children and its sale should be restricted."

2nd—That most cheap candy is injurious, especially the highly colored kinds.

Speaking for the members of the Candy Manufacturers' Association of British Columbia, which comprises the principal large and reputable candy manufacturers in the Province, we may say in regard to the above:

"We use color to denote the quality of sugar we add to our cane sugar, to which is added a small percentage of corn syrup (glucose) and sometimes a trace of flavor and color.

"Regarding these materials, the cane sugar, corn syrup and flavor do not need comment. Now, what about the color? We use color to conform to the laws of Canada and use only certified harmless colors. If the lump of sugar you drop in your breakfast coffee is harmful, then the lollipop may be injurious, but if you can sweeten your coffee without danger, then we submit the lollipop is guiltless.

In stating that most cheap candy is injurious, the inference is that the manufacturer adulterates his sugar with inferior materials in order to reduce the cost. If Dr. Price knows of any impure ingredient that may be used to adulterate sugar for the above purpose, he is in possession of a secret unknown to the members of the Confectioners' Association.

As far as we know, no confectioner is more pure and harmless food than the maligned lollipop and kindred lines of cheap candy as made by our members and sold here.

Dr. Price "has been informed lately of cases where children have suffered from ulcerated mouth as a result of eating cheap confectionery," but Dr. Price does not tell us how this unnamed source of information arrived at the above conclusion.

The writer has recent knowledge of a lady who has been receiving medical treatment for some months for ulcerated mouth, and is quite sure that she has not had time induced in the recent past.

visited by the League in Vancouver and obviously cannot say whether these gentlemen's intentions in that respect were not made in good faith. I do know, however, that no such literature has been used in the Victoria campaign. On the contrary I desire to make it most distinctly understood that the Navy League, Victoria Branch, has nothing whatever to do with the Institute referred to. The League, however, is raising funds for another institution, the Boys' Naval Brigade, and we have found that object to be quite sufficient in enlisting the public sympathy without the necessity for misrepresentation of any kind or sort whatsoever.

It is not my intention at this time to go into the past history of the association or the Navy League in which Messrs. Spence and Hill are connected, further than to say that if there is any obligation on either side it is wholly upon them and not upon the Navy League, which rendered them substantial pecuniary assistance at a critical period in their careers.

Further to my conclusion, that the Navy League has very little respect for the British and Foreign Sailors' Society as an institution, notwithstanding that its representatives abroad are not injurious, especially the highly colored kinds.

Speaking for the members of the Candy Manufacturers' Association of British Columbia, which comprises the principal large and reputable candy manufacturers in the Province, we may say in regard to the above:

"We use color to denote the quality of sugar we add to our cane sugar, to which is added a small percentage of corn syrup (glucose) and sometimes a trace of flavor and color.

"Regarding these materials, the cane sugar, corn syrup and flavor do not need comment. Now, what about the color? We use color to conform to the laws of Canada and use only certified harmless colors. If the lump of sugar you drop in your breakfast coffee is harmful, then the lollipop may be injurious, but if you can sweeten your coffee without danger, then we submit the lollipop is guiltless.

operated a drug store, and while absent from his town a girl clerk sold a bottle of patent medicine without first affixing the revenue stamp. Do we mean to say that if we are skeptical of the grand old convictions he appears to have up his sleeve? Let him come out with the names!"

Heat was displayed by the Attorney-General when he pointed to Mr. Bowser's allegations of wholesale intoxication on the part of the liquor stores staff. "I am not surprised, on the fact that there has been liquor stolen from a number of the stores and that at Vancouver the whole staff had been dismissed. Surely, he said, there was a limit to that source of insinuation and malicious attack.

Not "Tipped Off"

"I don't know whether the Dominion Government tipped off the fact of its intention to impose increased taxes on liquor, but they didn't tip me off," declared the Attorney-General, answering Mr. Bowser's criticism that the police in liquor stores throughout the country, surmised these increased taxes would apply to liquor, had cleared large quantities from the bonded warehouses, while the Provincial authorities had failed to do so.

"But even if they had done so, I am not surprised, as they would have been unfair, unless they would have been unfair, as they were in stepping into this Province and taking $1.60 per bottle of the profit we are making. Had the Federal Government applied that tax to the whole Dominion we would have had to pay a considerable amount more. Of our profit per bottle one-half goes to the Province and one-half to the municipality. Of the $1.60 taken by the Dominion we get less than ten cents back, and assuming that we make two millions, the Dominion is losing two millions out of the Province. I am not sure out about the Opposition leader's words when he suggests we should have cleared that liquor. The people are not supposed to defeat the laws of the country. His suggestion is that the Federal Act is crooked, and that the Federal tax is not fair either. If that Federal tax is not a proper one we can take action; if it is proper, we should pay it."

"A more cowardly method of insinuation was never before used," was the way Attorney-General Farris declared. Mr. Bowser's allegation of the existence of "heat" within the premises could not be substantiated, as far as I am concerned, and I am not surprised that the large part of the liquor was purchased by the Government and no one else, not in the ring, had a chance to sell. He read from a lengthy list, and quantities purchased, making the point that he had no knowledge of it, and he remarked, "I have heard of these rumors going around and what the Opposition leader and the member for Esquimalt, if they could find time to let Dr. Baker alone, would likely say, and I had this list prepared."

Ducks' Eggs

Sir.—Having read with interest the article in today's Colonist upon the subject of "French Housekeeping." I wonder whether people in Canada realize the use of ducks' eggs in preference to hen in making the lightest cakes and omelets? The writer lived in France some time before the war, and travelled in Brittany and other places. She also lived in London, England, in Scotland from the French.

She also discovered that one duck's egg was equal to two of hen's in richness, etc. I find in this country a certain amount of prejudice against ducks' eggs, but anyone who has used runner ducks' eggs can hardly discern the difference. In these hard times, surely housekeepers will consider this matter, as runner ducks' eggs can be obtained at a cheaper rate than the others.

CONVICT MAY APPEAR AS PLAINTIFF IN SUIT

Nick Semenoff, sentenced for arson, sues for wages alleged to be owing on burned house.

A sequel to the recent trial and conviction, at the Victoria Fall Assizes, of Nick Semenoff, sentenced to three years' imprisonment for setting fire to the Banffian house of Mrs. Olga Drayman, was contained in proceedings before His Honor Judge Lampman, sitting in County Court Chambers yesterday, when the status of Semenoff as plaintiff in a suit against Mrs. Drayman became the subject of an application to the court.

Mr. G. H. Sedger, appearing for the defendant, asked for judgment for his client, on account of the non-appearance of the plaintiff. The suit was for wages in the sum of $180, alleged to be owing to Semenoff for work done on the house which afterwards went down in flames; in which fire Mrs. Drayman and her two infant children narrowly escaped with their lives; and for starting which Semenoff was convicted of arson and sent to the penitentiary.

Mr. R. C. Lowe, appearing for Semenoff, said that he was in communication with the warden of Okanagan prison, and in view to having Semenoff brought out to give evidence at the trial of the action, having recourse to habeas corpus proceedings. Judge Lampman agreed to Mr. Lowe's request for a stay of proceedings, pending a determination of the question of Semenoff's appearance.

LIQUOR ACT ATTACKED AS BEING INOPERATIVE

Counsel for Appellant From Police Court Conviction Says Statute Was Never Properly Proclaimed

The Government Liquor Act was assailed as being null and void when further argument on the motion of Mr. R. C. Lowe for dismissal of the charge against his client, John Ferguson, appealing from a conviction by Mr. Alex Martin in the City Police Court for having for sale at the Victoria Hotel, took place before His Honor Judge Lampman, at the adjourned session of the trial in the County Criminal Court, yesterday. Ferguson was sentenced to six months' imprisonment by the magistrate.

The evidence given for the prosecution on Thursday was, in effect, that two special policemen, H. E. Craig and Charles E. Brown, employed on liquor duty by Chief of Police Fry had been sent to the Victoria Hotel on August 15 last, and were there served with whisky and beer by the defendant. While the special policemen were there, Chief Fry and squad raided the place and found eighteen dozen bottles of beer, besides several bottles of spirits.

Mr. Lowe moved for dismissal on the grounds, first, that the accused could not be convicted on the uncorroborated evidence of the policemen, commonly described Craig and Brown, and secondly, that the Government Liquor Act was inoperative, inasmuch as it had not been proclaimed, as it should have been, by the Lieutenant-Governor in person, but by an order of the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council.

Resisting the motion, Mr. C. L. Harrison, appearing for the Crown, said that judicial notice must be taken of the fact that the court therefore was not obliged to prove the act by submitting an official copy of the order-in-council as evidence on the trial. But if the court held against him in that argument, said Mr. Harrison, he would cure the defect by moving for leave to produce a copy of The Gazette containing the order.

Mr. Harrison further urged that by the provisions of the Interpretation Act a proclamation by the Lieutenant-Governor is to be understood as a proclamation by order of the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council.

Mr. Lowe replied that the Crown could not be permitted to repeat its case against the defendant after that had been formally closed, and that would be a denial of the rights of accused persons if such a procedure were countenanced by the court.

The learned judge said that the points raised by counsel on both sides were highly important, inasmuch as the motion for the defence attacked the validity of the Government Liquor Act. His Honor, however, ruled that if the act had been proclaimed only by an order-in-council, it must be proved in court on the trial of a person accused under its provisions. A judge must know of a statute, he was not required to take judicial notice of an order-in-council. He would adjourn the trial until Monday.

HE WORRIED ABOUT HIS WIFE'S HEALTH

Regine Woman Grew Thinner and Weaker Every Day—She Gains 25 Pounds

"My wife was losing ground so fast, just growing weaker and thinner every day, that I was almost beside myself with worry about her, but she is in the best of health now, so I want to say something about that. She has a good job, to say about 'Penman,' and Albert E. Coit, 'Knox Cottage,' Lorne Street, Regina, Sask."

"She had a bad form of stomach trouble and I don't believe anybody ever suffered any more from indigestion and nervousness than she did."

"She seemed to get new strength and energy from every drink of 'Penman' which she has a splendid appetite now, her digestion is perfect, and she gained twenty-five pounds in weight. We are firm believers in 'Penman' at our house."

"Penman' is sold in Victoria by G.W. Drug Co., and by leading druggists everywhere."

City and District in Brief

Sale of Home Cooking—The Ladies' Aid of the James Bay Methodist Church will hold a sale of home-cooking in the basement of Spencer's Store today.

To Get Quotations—Clerk Cowper has been authorized by the Saanich Council to procure quotations on a card of two-inch pipe.

Autoria Light—The Saanich Council at its last meeting gave instructions for the placing of a light at the corner of Bay Road and Shelburne Street.

Load Limitation—The Saanich Council Thursday night passed a resolution limiting vehicular loads on certain roads of the municipality to two tons.

Parent-Teachers' Meeting—There will be a meeting of Sir James Douglas School Parent-Teachers' Association on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, when Mr. May, Provincial Inspector of Schools, will give an address.

V. O. N. Monthly Meeting—The regular monthly meeting of the Victorian Order of Nurses will take place at the order's headquarters, 1145 Rockland Avenue, on Tuesday afternoon at 2:30. Special business will be discussed.

Farmers Would Invest—There are farmers in Ward Three who have told him they would like to invest in the debentures which will be sold to provide for water extensions to Gordon Head, according to Vantreight told the Saanich Council at its last meeting.

Change of Day of Meeting—Owing to Thanksgiving Day falling on the first Monday in the month, members of the Florence Nightingale Chapter, I.O.D.E., will hold their regular meetings on Monday, October 31, at the Jones Building, 10 o'clock, instead of the usual time of 8 o'clock. The president of members is requested.

To Clean Ditch—The Saanich Cleaning Club has authorized the cleaning out of the Cloverdale ditch, the money to come out of the Ward Two appropriations. This action was taken following the receipt by the Council of a petition from residents affected by the flooding.

From Prairies—Mr. George Carter, of the Carter Oriental Art Studio, has returned to the city from a six months' business trip and is impressed with the optimistic outlook on the prairies at present. He says that the population of the Prairie Provinces are alive to the fact that the return to normal conditions is not far away.

Service of Song—The choir and orchestra of the Emmanuel Baptist Church will conduct a "Service of Praise" in the W.G. Ross Hall, 745 Yates Street, Sunday afternoon at 4:30 p.m. This service is open to the young women of the city, and the association would be glad to have as many as possible stay after the service for a cup of tea. Come and bring a friend.

Provincial Police Court—George Newman was fined $10, and Jack Haunt $20, by magistrate Jay, of the Provincial Police Court yesterday, on a conviction of entering with firearms upon enclosed lands in the Saanich district without having permission from the owner. The defendant pleaded guilty to the charge. Mr. O. J. Wilkie appeared for the Provincial Police.

Charged With Vagrancy—Florence Graham, a young girl, said to be from Nanaimo, who has been staying in the Y. W. C. A. Hostel here, was charged with vagrancy in the City Police Court yesterday. It was charged that the girl had been apprehended by Mrs. Hart, police-woman, who had discovered that the girl was not working. Mr. Hart thought that the girl should be given an opportunity of returning to her home in Nanaimo. Magistrate Jay concurred in this view and remanded the defendant in her own recognizance.

Traffic By-Law Cases—For speeding his motor car on Yale Street, Mr. E. H. McNeil, fined $10. In the City Police Court yesterday, Mr. E. R. Armstrong was fined $5 for failing to report a collision between his motor car and a bicyclist, and $5 for driving under the influence of alcohol. Arrangements were made to conduct a bazaar and dance on November 28, in the Foresters' Hall, to aid the organization's funds. There was a good attendance at the meeting.

Charge of Vagrancy—Florence Graham, a young girl, said to be from Nanaimo, who has been staying in the Y. W. C. A. Hostel here, was charged with vagrancy in the City Police Court yesterday. It was charged that the girl had been apprehended by Mrs. Hart, police-woman, who had discovered that the girl was not working.

Flight of Thriller—The Knights of the Thistle were held last night at a dance held at the Caledonia Hall. Wallace's orchestra was in attendance and the committee in charge of the affair included Messrs. McIntosh, MacBeath, Angus, Wallace, Wood and Alexander. Refreshments were served, and the evening's entertainment greatly enjoyed by all present.

To Hold Social Later—The executive of the Canadian National Rifle Association met last night and decided to postpone their social gathering until a later date, when they hope to have the co-operation of the band in staging a joint entertainment. This afternoon the women shooting, and will commence the Winter drill. Lieutenant Hensen presided at the meeting.

Esquimalt Friendly Help—Miss Galenby, convener of the sale of home-cooking which will take place at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon, at the Sailors' Club, Esquimalt Road, wishes to remind the members of the Esquimalt Friendly, that under no consideration may the sale be held conducted, to send any donations to the club this morning. All donors and purchasers will be welcomed at this afternoon's function.

W.H. Refund Taxes—Refunding of 1921 taxes, owing to the Privy Council decision regarding church taxation, was asked in a letter from Mr. T. Rogers, secretary of the Esquimalt Friends' Society, to be presented by the Saanich Council Thursday night. He paid $12.72 on October 16, forgetting the Privy Council decision, and has wanted the sum returned.

Regine Woman Grew Thinner and Weaker Every Day—She Gains 25 Pounds

"My wife was losing ground so fast, just growing weaker and thinner every day, that I was almost beside myself with worry about her, but she is in the best of health now, so I want to say something about that. She has a good job, to say about 'Penman,' and Albert E. Coit, 'Knox Cottage,' Lorne Street, Regina, Sask."

"She had a bad form of stomach trouble and I don't believe anybody ever suffered any more from indigestion and nervousness than she did."

"She seemed to get new strength and energy from every drink of 'Penman' which she has a splendid appetite now, her digestion is perfect, and she gained twenty-five pounds in weight. We are firm believers in 'Penman' at our house."

"Penman' is sold in Victoria by G.W. Drug Co., and by leading druggists everywhere."

PARIS, Oct. 28.—The police investigating the attempt against the life of Ambassador Herrick, have arrested a chemist, Raymond Robin, travelling salesman, in whose possession they found ten bags loaded with cheddars.

TRUSTEE LEAVES AND MEETING DISBANDS

Mrs. Andrews Leaves School Board Without Quorum Because of Opposition to Salary Increase to Principal

After encountering a calm for several months, a period of restful peace for the trustees, the School Board drove into a new storm last night, when Mrs. Bertha P. Andrews, who had been a member of the board since 1918, left the board without the quorum necessary to carry on business.

Staggart Returns—The pulpit of Metropolitan Methodist Church will be occupied on Sunday by Rev. Dr. Sipprell, who has returned from a three-months' trip abroad, during which time he has attended some of the big religious gatherings in Europe and the Ecumenical Conference of Methodism in London. Dr. Sipprell's message in the morning will be on "World Methodism," and in the evening on "World Brotherhood."

Staggart's Drainage—Plans for the drainage of the Staggart's district were laid before the Saanich Council on Tuesday night. Mr. G. E. Harvey, surveyor, reported that the estimated cost was a minimum of $277 acres for the drainage of at least 277 acres. The matter will be referred to the Works Committee. The plans were prepared as the result of a petition asking that the work be done under the Ditch and Watercourses Act.

MEDICAL SOCIETY APPRECIATES V.O.N.

Supports Victorian Order's Proposed Campaign for Funds—"Drive" Will Commence November 12

The Victorian Order of Nurses, one of the biggest forces in Canada for the alleviation of social conditions in the communities where they are instituted, announces "drive" to start shortly in aid of their work in Victoria. The local organization is fortunate in having Mrs. Goulding Wilson for chairman, supports three visiting nurses, Miss Corbett, who has recently come to Victoria as head nurse; Miss Shaw and Miss Rants, both of whom have been here for the past eighteen months. Their campaign for funds will run from November 12 to 19.

The secretary of the Order, Miss K. Oldfield, has received from Mr. Thomas, secretary of the Victoria Medical Society, the following letter endorsing and supporting the proposed campaign for funds, showing that the organization which he represents is duly appreciative of the hard work and service of the medical profession receive through the work of this philanthropic order:

Dear Miss Oldfield—In reply to your letter of October 8 requesting a resolution from the Victoria Medical Society in support of your proposed campaign for funds, I take pleasure in forwarding the following resolution which was passed unanimously at our meeting:

"We, the members of the Victoria Medical Society, know that the Victorian Order of Nurses to be an organization rendering valuable service to the community."

"We keenly appreciate the great practical and educational value of the Order."

"We realize fully the urgent need of funds to carry on this work. With sufficient financial support a greater and more extensive work would be possible."

"We would consider it unfortunate if the Victorian Order of Nurses in this city were forced to curtail its work or withdraw from the field through lack of funds."

"We would therefore heartily commend the proposed campaign for financial assistance and strongly recommend to the people of this community the Victorian Order of Nurses as most deserving of their support."

"It is the wish of this Society that you use this resolution in any way that you may think fit to produce the greatest benefit."

Yours truly,

DR. THOMAS.
Lion. Secretary-Treasurer—Victoria
Medical Society.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Sampson, of Vancouver, are visiting in this city for a few days.

Mr. J. C. McLeod, of Vancouver, is spending a brief holiday in the Capital.

Mrs. H. Charters and daughter, of Crofton, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Vaughan, Fell Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Sharpe and Mrs. J. K. Robinson, of Kokishkin, have been spending a few days in Victoria.

Mr. J. F. Mutterer, of French Creek, is down for a few days' golf in Victoria.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Brougham, of Vancouver, have taken quarters in the Vancouver Annex for the Winter months.

Miss Wilson, who has been the house guest of Mrs. Morkill, Pemberton Road, has left for her home in New York.

Mrs. J. H. Newton, of Victoria, is spending a week holidaying in Seattle. She is expected to return to Victoria today.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. John Irving, the guest of Mrs. A. C. Plumerfer for bridge and tea, and in the evening Mrs. E. G. Prior entertained her at dinner.

The Ladies' Aid of First Presbyterian Church are being congratulated on the fact that they have been enabled throughout the year to secure funds to reduce the mortgage debt on the church to the extent of $1,000.

Miss Camacho, of New York, who has been the guest of Mrs. W. Fleet Robertson, Rockland Avenue, has returned to her home, and was accompanied as far as Seattle by her hostess.

A delightful afternoon was spent by several ladies who motored from Victoria and, with several others, were entertained by Mrs. Weir at her fine country home, "Orchard." Matchmaking Wednesday, Mr. Butchart has returned to Victoria from the Sound City. Mrs. Butchart addressed the Garden Club, of Seattle, on "A Color Scheme in Perennial Gardens," at the request of the members.

Mrs. Whitfield and Mrs. Poars entertained recently at the former's home, Metchosin Road, on the occasion of the birthday of their two little daughters, whose natal days happened on the same date. About thirty little presents were present, and a large collection of birthday gifts were received by both of the girls, their names being respectively Valery Whitfield and Jean Poars. Autumn foliage and flowers were the decorations. The above hostesses served the happy group with goodness that appealed to all.

The first item on the afternoon's "The Musical," in be given at the home of Mrs. A. Scott, 1212 Ft. James Street, Oak Bay, under the auspices of the Ladies' Musical Club, will be the paper on "The Classical and Romantic Schools of Music." This will be read by Mrs. George Bishop, the recently-appointed club reader, and will be followed by other items as follows: Piano, solo, Miss Rita Orison; songs, Miss E. M. Morton; 'cello, Miss Peggy Scott; violin, Miss Irene Black; songs, Miss Winifred Bell.

Mrs. A. C. Burdick, Terrace Avenue, was the hostess yesterday afternoon at a very delightful bridge and bridge party. The house was very charmingly decorated for the occasion. The invited guests included Mrs. Goodman (Vancouver), Mrs. W. J. Bowser, Mrs. C. C. Bennett, Mr. J. Turner, Mrs. Peters, Mrs. J. P. Ross, Mr. C. P. Hill, Mrs. J. W. Amberg, Mrs. W. H. Big California Corporation Is Negotiating for Site on the Songhee Reserve Area—
Other Industrial Projects

The Shell Oil Company of California, one of the world's largest independent oil concerns, is now negotiating with the Provincial Government with a view to establishing a plant on the former Songhee Reserve area, it was learned yesterday.

The development was reported to the Industrial Committee of the City Council by Ald. John Harvey. Representatives of the company were in Victoria last week and conferred with Government officials and members of the City Council regarding the securing of a site and concessions regarding taxation and water supply.

The Industrial Committee has held a series of conferences this week with representatives of aerated water and fruit-canning enterprises, but negotiations have not yet reached a definite form.

The Streets Committee yesterday considered a number of recommendations from City Engineer F. M. Preston. It placed on the list for early construction Connaught Road, which is said to need improvement. There are ten houses on the road, and the cost of the work will be about $600.

Gladstone Avenue, between Shakespear and Chestnut Streets, will also be dealt with. Sidewalk on Ryan Street will be extended for about 250 feet at a cost of $75.

The committee took the advice of Mr. Preston and decided not to remove shrubs and rose bushes on Davie Street at present, a new petition for a boulevard along Arnold Avenue will be prepared.

Mr. Preston was instructed to apply the regular labor conditions in connection with the Humpback Reservoir overflow work.

RUGBY IS GAINING GROUND IN ENGLAND

Is Challenging Sway of Professional Soccer in Many Northern Districts—Plenty of Good Material

LONDON, Oct. 27.—Rugby in the North of England is flourishing this season, and new clubs are springing up in districts where previously professional associations had been held undisputed. In Darlington now is its Rugby club, and both Stockton and Saltburn are said to be in process of organizing clubs. Foremost in the work of encouraging the new clubs is Mr. R. F. Oakes, honorary secretary of the Yorkshire Rugby Football Union. His influence on the game can hardly be excelled save by Mr. G. Rowland Hill.

As far as Northumberland and Durham are concerned, the four strongest clubs of the season promise to be the College of Medicine, Newcastle; Percy Park, of North Shields; Durham City, last season's winners of the Durham senior and junior titles; and Rovers. The College of Medicine is to be strengthened by the inclusion of G. Scott Page, the Old Leyesian, who last season captained his home club, Westoe. Percy Park have two outstanding players in their captain, Cathcart, a very clever wing product of Glaggswick School, who was last season's full back for the North Public Schools against the South. Coates is justifying all early promise, and is expected not only to be this season's choice for Northumberland, but to get his North.

Hartlepool Rovers, who have Capt. W. Grey again as leader, have a multitude of players at command and can afford to relegate R. Tate, who last season gained his North cap, to the Reserves in favor of A. C. Waddy, a big but clever scrumme-up worker. Westoe, of the University of Durham, played in a majority of team matches, but missed his blue. Durham City, who are invariably a strong second side, have a most promising three-quarter in the son of H. E. Ferron, of the Rugby Union Committee.

GAMES AT CHURCH

There will be two basketball games in the First Presbyterian Church gymnasium Saturday, November 8. The first, commanded by Mr. J. G. Miller, will be between the St. Andrews girls, and those of the First Presbyterian, while the second match will be between the Belmont seniors and the Firsts.

CADETS' SHOOTING IS OF HIGH CLASS

But Report of National Rifle Association Says Canadian Standard Is Low in Comparison With Dominions

LONDON, Oct. 28.—The National Rifle Association has issued the 1921 results of the competitions for the Imperial Challenge Shields, which, with medals and over $65 in prize money presented by Lieutenant-Colonel Raymond Fennell, of South Africa, is for shooting with a miniature rifle on their own ranges by boys of the school cadets in the British Empire. Teams entered in the senior division numbered 53, and teams in the junior division 52, aggregating 14,800 boys, with 132 Canadians entered. Cadet Burnhardt, of Tasmania, won the senior challenge shield; Cadet Newton, of Johannesburg, South Africa, won the junior challenge shield; and the cadets of Tasmania won the prizes out of the 124 prizes offered. Dorothy Colgate Institute, New Brunswick, won the Governor-General's challenge trophy as the unit showing the highest efficiency. Next in order of merit were the York Rangers, of Toronto, and the Collegiate Institute of Peterborough, Ontario.

The National Rifle Association's report on the Imperial Challenge Shield competition refers to the maintenance of a high standard of shooting by the various competitors. The score of the senior division of the Australia cadets was clearly due to their careful training, the report says, while the South African boys showed steady progress. The report also states that the standard of shooting by the cadets in Canada is low compared with the other Dominions.

SAILOR FRIEDMAN WINS

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—Sailor Friedman, of Chicago, tonight defeated Ernie Rice, English lightweight champion, in the seventh round of a scheduled 15-round bout in Madison Square Garden, when Rice's seconds tossed a towel into the ring.

In an eight-round bout Joe Gorman, Portland featherweight, boxed a draw with Sammy Beiger, of New York.

Rice, when his backers admitted defeat, was bleeding profusely from a cut over his left eye, suffered in the second round. He was hardly able to see his opponent, a squat, wiry, strong man, and trying to turn the tide of battle when it ended, Rice's pluck of fort was cheered by the crowd.

MCGILL WINS TENNIS

MONTREAL, Oct. 28.—McGill tennis stars won a majority of the matches from the University of Toronto in a playoff for the title yesterday. Variety only won one of the five matches played.

JONES AND GRUNAN BOX ANOTHER DRAW

TACOMA, Oct. 28.—For the second time in two weeks Morgan Jones, of Tacoma, and Al Grunan, Los Angeles, lightweights boxed a fast six-round draw here last night. Jimmings experts conceded Jones a slight lead in the first three rounds, while Grunan piled up his points in the fifth and sixth. Jimmy Rivers, the heavyweight, had an easy time outpointing Rocco Stramaglia, a newcomer from Cagliari. The bout went the full six rounds, with Rivers having a long lead on points. Jimmy Rivers defeated Bill Stanley in a lightweight clash, while Frankie Britt won a featherweight mix from Al Lupo.

In the opener Babe Coggins and Paddy Coggins boxed a four-round draw.

INTERCITY HOCKEY

Teams Representing Island and Mainland Will Play in Vancouver Next Saturday

On Friday, November 4, a grass hockey team representing the Island will cross to Vancouver to play at Brockton Point against an eleven representing the mainland, the mainland to be chosen from Victoria, Victoria, North Vancouver and Vancouver clubs. A local ladies' team will also cross at the same time to play against a B.C. University team, but the opponents have not yet been definitely decided on. Practice games will take place today at the Jubilee Hospital Ground. The club dance is to be held at the Orange Hall on November 16.

The rainfall in the Jordan Valley is about the same as that of Hays City, Kansas.

GAME ON INCREASE IN UNITED STATES

Wild Fowl More Numerous in Some Localities Than Oldest Inhabitants Can Remember—Quail Unusually Plentiful

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—This is to be a banner season for the American sportsman. Game of the sort usually hunted in more plentiful, generally speaking, than it has been for many years. In some localities there are deer tracks and nests that the older inhabitants ever saw before. East of the Mississippi River migratory birds are making their southern flight in unprecedented numbers. The quail are present in numbers unequalled in many years. And the deer are not so scarce apparently as they used to be.

All told the 5,000,000 hunters who will carry a gun into the field or to the lake or to river between now and New Year's are apt to find the happiest hunting grounds of many years, according to reports to the Biological Survey, United States Department of Agriculture, from United States game agencies stationed from Maine to Florida and from the Atlantic to the Mississippi.

The Sporting Editor.

Would Mr. J. Youseen, managing the so-called Victoria West football team, please state the reason for styling this team as such? It is misleading, and the old Victoria West athletes do not appreciate it as such. In the old days Victoria West was a stronghold of all strenuous sports and has developed some fine athletes. In lacrosse, basketball and football Victoria West team was the best in the city. Victoria West voluntarily dropped out of the league to give the intermediates a chance we did not expect a team of outsiders. The present so-called team has no Victoria West player in its ranks, while former teams were composed entirely of Victoria West lads. The Victoria West boys are playing two Victoria West boys, Yarrow two, Cumberland and Courtney two each, Metis intermediates two.

The Victoria West baseball team played every available team in the city in July and August, played eight games and won fourteen, easily in top line of amateur city league ball, but is anxiously awaiting the long-promised park.

HOME PORT WELCOMES CHAMPION BLUENOSE

LUNENBURG, N.S., Oct. 28.—Crowds cheered, bands played, houses boomed and every vessel, house and public building flew bunting yesterday when the international fishermen's cup winner, Bluenose, came into port from Halifax.

Captain Angus Waiters was lifted on the shoulders of fellow fishermen and borne in a procession around the town.

Johnnie Williams, Duff, McCullum, and others addressed the gathering and congratulated the skipper and crew of the Bluenose on their victory.

W. E. Williams, William Duff, McCullum, and others addressed the gathering and congratulated the skipper and crew of the Bluenose on their victory.

What's at the Playhouses?*ROYAL Get ready for a good laugh, you're in for the last time the Royal is going to show you a brand new Charles Chaplin comedy. Make a special point to see all the Chaplin comedies. "The Idle Class" is a knockout, and it will make all laugh until the tears come. One novel feature of the comedy is the fact that the plot is in two parts—part one is a dual role—that of a tramp and of a gentleman. And he can be just as funny in a dress suit as he is in his tramp attire. His experiences on the golf links and as the absent-minded husband of the beautiful Edna Purviance are side-splitting. Don't miss "The Idle Class." As an additional attraction, we will show in his latest picture, "A Mid-night Bell." In this picture Charles Ray is seen as a traveling salesman, young, enthusiastic and persevering. His attempts to sell rubber heels to a storekeeper who doesn't want them are very amusing. But this picture isn't all comedy. There are some exciting episodes in which Ray battles his way through a haunted church. The musical attraction this week will be Miss Ivy Holt in selected songs.

COLUMBIA Wild animals have a distinct attraction for everybody—probably a liking inherited from the days when we were kids and the advent of the circus was the biggest thing in our lives. Of course there are any amount of zoos where we can see animals, but the big delight is to watch them doing something. Here's where the big attraction comes in "Nomads of the North." It abounds with the beasts of the backwoods—and they do things. That is the angle on which a striking lobby display can be hitched up. A young couple with maples and undergrowth, a bear cub overhead and intertwining it with vine, thus creating the effect of an entire forest canopy, at the back of which can be seen the snow-clad hills of the Northlands. A back-stroke painted on the wall behind the couple will convey that suggestion. Now go around to the taxidermist and borrow what animals you can from him—bears, lions, wildcats, wolves, or any other denizens of the Far North. If he has them.

CAPITOL "The Home Stretch," Douglas MacLean's latest Paramount-Lince star-ring vehicle, has been announced as the feature attraction at the Capitol Theatre for the last time today. With the story hinging on the gambling proclivities of a young horse-owner and his difficulties in freeing himself from the influence of the Goddess of Chance, "The Home Stretch" will afford MacLean one of the most entertaining roles in his popular career. Not only is the production rich in comedy, but it contains many gripping dramatic situations and thrilling racing scenes, as well. Particularly notable are the scenes of a spectacular horse race staged on one of America's largest racecourses, Bear Creek, Burnham, Margaret Livingston, Wade Boettler, Charles Malles and others equally well known afford Mr. MacLean excellent support.

VARIETY "The Scuttlers," the Fox THEATRE production in which William Farnum has been drawing large crowds to the Variety Theatre, will end its run tonight. Farnum is always pleasing, but in "The Scuttlers" he has a vehicle that is especially strong and entertaining. The fascination that surrounds the story carries Farnum's acting, as usual, to the highest order.

CHARLOTTE TOWN, P.E.I., Oct. 28.—J. J. Hughes, Liberal candidate for King's County, speaking at a campaign meeting in his district, declared that an overseas officer in Charlottetown admitted to him that he had voted for the Conservative having to do with the distribution of the soldiers' vote in the election of 1917, and that he placed 300 in King's to defeat Mr. Hughes.

Now go around to the taxidermist and borrow what animals you can from him—bears, lions, wildcats, wolves, or any other denizens of the Far North. If he has them.

CAPITOL "The Home Stretch," Douglas MacLean's latest Paramount-Lince star-ring vehicle, has been announced as the feature attraction at the Capitol Theatre for the last time today. With the story hinging on the gambling proclivities of a young horse-owner and his difficulties in freeing himself from the influence of the Goddess of Chance, "The Home Stretch" will afford MacLean one of the most entertaining roles in his popular career. Not only is the production rich in comedy, but it contains many gripping dramatic situations and thrilling racing scenes, as well. Particularly notable are the scenes of a spectacular horse race staged on one of America's largest racecourses, Bear Creek, Burnham, Margaret Livingston, Wade Boettler, Charles Malles and others equally well known afford Mr. MacLean excellent support.

CHARLOTTE TOWN, P.E.I., Oct. 28.—J. J. "The Idle Class" is a knockout, and it will make all laugh until the tears come. One novel feature of the comedy is the fact that the plot is in two parts—part one is a dual role—that of a tramp and of a gentleman. And he can be just as funny in a dress suit as he is in his tramp attire. His experiences on the golf links and as the absent-minded husband of the beautiful Edna Purviance are side-splitting. Don't miss "The Idle Class." As an additional attraction, we will show in his latest picture, "A Mid-night Bell." In this picture Charles Ray is seen as a traveling salesman, young, enthusiastic and persevering. His attempts to sell rubber heels to a storekeeper who doesn't want them are very amusing. But this picture isn't all comedy. There are some exciting episodes in which Ray battles his way through a haunted church. The musical attraction this week will be Miss Ivy Holt in selected songs.

INDIANS' RIGHTS ON COWICHAN RIVER

Matter Discussed at Meeting of Duncan Board of Trade, and Attitude Explained

Mr. C. F. Davis, on behalf of the Indians, appeared before the Council of the Duncan Board of Trade last evening and gave his views on the matter in regard to the war question. The Council then passed a resolution expressing sympathy and suggesting that the Indians obtain a definite settlement. On submissions being made in writing by Mr. Davis, the Council will give the matter further consideration. Mr. H. F. Prevost stated that the Indians had asked for their own food, but objection was made to them catching and selling to canneries fish illegally caught. It was common knowledge that nets were used in the river in which fish were being legally caught.

The Chums of the Board was accorded Mr. C. Wallach for his successful efforts to have the station agent retained at Cowichan and in obtaining an important announcement from the Railway Commission in regard to telephone rates.

Mr. Justice Eberts' report was that it went out of its way to whitewash the Fishery Department officials.

Mr. Hugh Savage, the president, presided at the meeting and there were present Messrs. H. F. Prevost, S. R. Kirkham, H. F. Smith, C. Wallach, H. F. Peterson, W. Corbinley, F. A. Monk, E. W. Neill, secretary, and Rev. E. M. Schesler.

COPY OF BETTY'S LETTER

Dear Mr. Simpson,
You know Clara Green, don't you? WELL SHE WANTED TO BE A NURSE. What do you think of that? OF COURSE SHE WAS SIXTEEN. I TALKED WITH HER SISTER OF MINE. However she left for Toronto taking her maid Topsy to carry her luggage. When they got to the station she said she wanted to BAN SO FAST TOPSY RUPTURED A BLOOD VESSEL IN HER LEG. However Clara got on the train safely. Then she got lost in the park happened to meet a BLED AND BLEED PELMEL. HER BAGGAGE, isn't that funny? I BET SHE WANTED TO BAN A NASTY ENGINEER FOR JERKING THE TRAIN SO. She soon got herself in and rescued her best safely. SHE TOOK OUT A BOOK BY MARIE LAMBE READ A PAGE AND FEW AND THEN GOT ON THE next train to home. Isn't that an interesting story? Betty.

PUZZLE FIND ABOVE THE NAMES OF 12 ARTICLES SOLD IN A GROCERY STORE

John Simpson was amazed when he read the above letter because he had never seen such an enter in his letters. And Betty "I've hidden the name of each article I've come to you for. You'll have to guess what they are. Please! Put it out and tell me the quantities." Well said Mr. Simpson. "I can't find the name of a single one of them. That's the secret in your note." "Of course you can't understand what's in the place. In such unkind sentence I've hidden the names of 12 articles of grocery, fruit or vegetable and there is just one thing in all you have to do is find the right letter to start on. For instance, if you start on the letter 'B' in the fifth word of the first underlined sentence you will quickly see B-E-A-N. That's the name of one of the things I want. Now you'll have to guess the other 11 underlined sentences. So now what do I want? Find out."

John Simpson patted the letter out and got the order. "Well, what do you call it? If you can tell me the name of each article and reward is being given. Remember there is no hidden name or products of any particular manufacturer. The 12 articles are all underlined sentence, the single name as follows: 1. B-E-A-N. 2. C-A-P-S-U-L-E-S. 3. ### CITY CONDEMS NEW PROPERTY TAX LEVY

After Listening to Arguments of Retailers, Manufacturers and Wholesalers, Committee Records Its Opposition

Holding that the Provincial Government proposal to empower municipalities to levy a personal property tax would, if acted upon, result in dual taxation and seriously handicap business, representatives of the Retail Merchants Association of Victoria wholesalers and manufacturers, went before the Streets Committee of the City Council yesterday afternoon and urged that the Mayor and aldermen oppose application of the measure.

The committee went on record as condemning the personal property tax. The Council will take similar action at its regular meeting Monday night.

Mr. Walter W. Ballard headed the delegation, numbering about forty business men.

The alternative to the personal property tax, as proposed by the delegation, is that the Government impose a suitable income tax, a share of which is to be handed over to the municipalities.

Ald. W. J. Sargent said he had always been in favor of an income tax as opposed to a property tax, declaring that in other provinces no attempt had been made to obtain such revenue for provincial treasuries.

Ald. E. S. Woodward said that ultimately some form of tax would be needed, and he blamed governmental extravagances for the present tax burden.

"So long as graft and corruption exist in public life we will have oppressive taxes," he declared.

"There's no reason to go into that business," interrupted Chairman Geo. Hengist, "we are here to record a resolution today and confirm it Monday night."

The statement follows:

"We wish to thank you for the opportunity you have given us of meeting you this afternoon to present to you our views on the personal property tax, which the Provincial Government has proposed handing over to the cities and municipalities of this Province to help relieve the financial burdens the said cities and municipalities are carrying."

"As good and loyal citizens of Victoria we desire first of all to make abundantly clear that we are not opposed to the Provincial Government enacting a tax that will enable the cities and municipalities of British Columbia to obtain a more equitable share of the monies that are collected in the form of taxation. We recognize that the governing bodies of our cities and municipalities have real problems to face and that they need assistance from the Legislature of this Province, but we also firmly believe that you cannot do better than the Government of British Columbia to enact laws that are manifestly unfair and unjust to the business interests of this and other cities. We also believe that when we have presented our case to you we can look for your wholehearted and loyal support to our proposals."

"You will note that one of the largest and most representative delegations of business men of the Province waited upon the Premier and the members of his Cabinet on Thursday, October 20, to ask for the abolition of the personal property tax. That delegation represented practically every organized business in British Columbia and was in full agreement with the personal property, and they stood absolutely as one man in their request to the Government for the removal of the personal property tax."

"An Iniquitous Tax"

"It was pointed out to the Premier and the members of his Cabinet that the personal property tax was an iniquitous tax, as it imposed a tax on a merchant when he had actually incurred a loss in carrying on his business. Mr. J. B. Thompson, chairman of the Vancouver Manufacturers' Association of Vancouver, termed the personal property tax as class legislation and not economic. Continuing, he said, "to impose the tax which last year produced some $924,000 would occasion stagnation in business and would mean the closing down of many industries. The business men were not asking for favors, but only for fair treatment. Continuation of such taxation would prove disastrous." Mr. J. A. Cunningham, who represented the Metal Trades Association, Master Builders' Association, Contractors' Association and Transport and Cartage Association, said: "The personal property tax was impossible and could not be paid. It would be impossible to the wall."

He pointed out that the lumber and metal trade must carry large stocks and to force them to pay one per cent on such stocks would mean they could not compete with the East.

"The unfairness of the tax was illustrated by Mr. W. H. Malkin, who held that a man earning a salary of $1000 a month was better off than the merchant who was taxed the same amount from his business. The merchant man would only pay his income tax, whilst the business man would have to pay the same income tax and the personal property tax, too.

Unpopular; Admittedly Unfair

Reference to the speeches made before the Premier are given here in order that you may get a fair idea of the position taken by the Government proposal. This proposed tax is unpopular, and its unfairness was admitted by the Hon. John Hart, Minister of Finance, at a meeting of the retail section of the Board of Trade, July 24, 1919. We quote from The Colonist, Friday, July 25, 1919. This is what Mr. Hart said: "Personally I don't like the idea of the personal property tax. There is a chance that those that are called upon to pay it might actually have incurred a loss in their business. This isn't fair, and I hope that next year we shall see our way clear to get rid of the 'whole thing.' Continuing, he said: 'I feel that we can work out a plan for finding new sources of revenue without adding to the burden of those already paying taxes. It seems to me that we could find a way of bringing in taxes from those people who contribute nothing, but who enjoy all the benefits of those who are subject to taxation.'

"Now, gentlemen, this is the tax that the Government proposed to hand over to you."

"Another point we believe that should be brought to your attention is the fact that this proposal of the Government means dual taxation. As the law now stands, the Provincial Government has the option of collecting from the merchant either the tax on his income or personal property whichever is the greater. Under the new proposal the Government is going to take his money and then tax his personal property, which means his stock, fixtures, bills receivable, etc., from which he derives his income. We know you need revenue, but we believe you will agree with us when we say that you do not wish to receive revenue from any quarter that will impose such liability on the business."

"Major Gale, of Vancouver, has declared against proposals of the Hon. John Hart that municipalities were permitted to increase their revenue by levying a personal property tax as this arrangement would not conform to the principle that each citizen should pay in proportion to his ability."

Willing to Bear Share

"Since that statement appeared in the press the business men of Vancouver met the Vancouver City Council and received from the Council their endorsement of any constructive alternative to the personal property tax. The business men of Victoria have been very anxious to have their voices heard very clearly in this connection. The members of the Victoria City Council are willing to bear a just portion of the taxation burden of this city, and this spirit is evidenced by the proposal we are now going to make."

"Our proposed alternative is that the Government impose an equitable income tax, a share of which is to be handed over to the cities and municipalities."

"We further suggest that in order to keep expenses at a minimum and save the merchants' time in filing annual returns, that only one set of returns be made, and that these returns be made to the Provincial Government."

"Gentlemen, we have submitted

our proposal to you and respectfully ask that you give them your earnest consideration and support."

Let the Women Tell Their Story

"From my experience as a wife and mother I find that the majority of users of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food are women, especially women passing through the change of life; next by young mothers to regain strength after baby comes, and also by mothers for their young daughters entering their womanhood. While it is good for all classes of humanity, I am sure it is especially so for women, as they seem to be troubled most by nervous diseases."—Mrs. H. Alcorn, 23 Gerald Street, Charlottetown, P.E.I.

"Mrs. Wm. Woods, Goldwater, Ont., writes: 'After the birth of my baby I was run down, nervous and could not eat nor sleep. Jumping at the least noise Dr. Chase's Nerve Food built me up and made me strong and well again.'

"Mrs. H. Alcorn, 23 Gerald St., Charlottetown, P.E.I., writes: 'Dr. Chase's Nerve Food was recommended to me by an aunt who used it while passing through the change of life and was completely built up by its use.'

"Mrs. Joe Lalonde, Hydro Glen, Ont., writes: 'I was run down in the summer. After using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food I am able to do my housework, and though 76 years old, feel better than I have for years.'

Every woman is interested in another woman's letters, and we shall give the women a chance to present their experience with Dr. Chase's Nerve Food by quoting from their letters.

If you do not find anyone you know among these ladies, write us for references from people in your community, or ask your friends and neighbors for particulars about Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

There is scarcely a town, village or hamlet in this great country but can produce splendid evidence as to the restorative, upbuilding influence of this well-known treatment for the blood and nerves.

Mrs. Jennie Haywood, 88 Turner St., Ottawa, Ont.: After 16 weeks in a hospital with rheumatic fever I returned home a complete nervous wreck. I took six boxes of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and have had no return of nervous trouble or rheumatism."

Mrs. W. H. Stoker, 48 Robert Street, Hamilton, Ont.: "A young mother told me she was so glad I advised her to use Dr. Chase's Nerve Food after her baby was born. She had tried many things, but after no success with them I told her just how much benefit I had gained with Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, so she also used it with the same wonderful results."

Mrs. R. I. Scott, Teacher, Caar, Alta.: "After teaching school for two years my nerves were in a shattered condition, and I had almost incessant headaches. The doctor told me I would have to quit, but a teacher friend told me how well I was restored by Dr. Chase's Nerve Food in similar conditions. My nerves were completely restored, so that I thoroughly enjoy life."

Mrs. John O'Donnell, 50 Colonial Street, John, N.S.: "While some used Dr. Chase's Nerve Food for run-down condition, ragged nerves and sleeplessness, there was one ailment which predominated—nervous headache. In combating nervous headache Dr. Chase's Nerve Food has no rival."

Mrs. May W. Taylor, 1289 Davie Street, Vancouver, B.C.: "Ten of my circle told me that they take Dr. Chase's Nerve Food for 'all-in' feeling attendant on the care of children and performance of housework. I myself take it for nervous irritability, and absolutely depend on it. I give my children the Nerve Food during 'examination week,' and am sure it helps them."

Mrs. Annie Bellamy, 33 Pauline Avenue, Toronto, Ont.: "Since the 'flu' epidemic people are resorting to preventive measures more than ever, and find that Dr. Chase's Nerve Food gives protection against the 'flu' and all other germ diseases."

Mrs. W. H. Stoker, 48 Robert Street, Hamilton, Ont.: "A young mother told me she was so glad I advised her to use Dr. Chase's Nerve Food after her baby was born. She had tried many things, but after no success with them I told her just how much benefit I had gained with Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, so she also used it with the same wonderful results."

NORTHERN PARLIAMENT IN WINTER SESSION

Stories of Adventures With Monsters of the Deep—
Fatal Accident in Logging
Camp—Masquerade Ball

CAMPBELL RIVER, Oct. 28.—On Saturday evening last everybody at Campbell River and adjoining districts forgot their troubles and gathered at the Little Theatre for the opening event of the Winter's festivities—a masquerade ball. Although somewhat isolated from the populous centres, the costumes of the dancers were quite up to date, while many of them were entirely original and picturesque. A dainty supper was served at midnight, and the dancing was kept till the early hours of morning. The Canadian orchestra provided the music, which was thoroughly appreciated by the big crowd. The prize winners were as follows: Best dressed lady, Mrs. Dr. Shaw; best sustained character, divided between Miss Hunter and Miss Smith; the local hospital; best boy, Miss Lily Taylor; best dressed gentileman, Mr. Big Hage; best sustained character, Mr. McNaught; best comic, Mr. Miller.

Death by Accident

The death occurred here on Friday morning last of Mr. C. C. Smith, a native of Ontario, who was instantly killed by a haulback line hitting him on the face and neck while working on the log boom in what is termed "the snake room" of the hotel, a group of men of all nationalities and occupations, which may be correctly named "The Big Sove Parliament." When a stiff southeaster is blowing outside and the rain beating against the window panes, these nomads of the coast "go up" and a good gory story is heard of the thrilling adventures through which they have passed in their migrations through the little-known country that abuts the Pacific coastline of Canada. While most of these men are ostensibly in the logging business, they frequently "break out" into other fields such as fishing, beachcombing, prospecting, trapping and many other lines the opportunity offers along these richly endowed shores.

The term "beachcombing" is not quite understood among many people of the more populous centres, and it will do no harm to explain the meaning. It is the hunting of the beachcomber in search of a "big find," who roams the coast in search of the big timbers that so often break away from the booms that are being towed to the sawmills of Vancouver and Victoria. The comber usually owns a gasoline boat, and with this little boat tows his load while drifting around the sea, and those that he takes from the beaches, to some quiet little bay, where he makes up his own boom and sells them to the logging outfit along the coast. There is a strict law in regard to drifting logs which is generally observed by the Beachcomber, who, usually advertises his "find" with a description of the markings on the logs, and receives $2 to $2.50 per thousand feet from the owners. Booms are frequently broken in the heavy south-easters that occur on the Gulf of Georgia, which means a harvest for the man on the beach.

Sea Lion Story

"Tommy" was one of a bunch who were swapping stories recently when the jury brought in a verdict of "not guilty" in the case of a Japanese, charged with theft of money in a gambling house in Cumberland. Upon receipt of the verdict, Mr. Justice Murphy thanked the jury for their service in the case and congratulated Mr. Roselli, of Vancouver, the defendant, upon winning the case, after which he asked that the prisoner Meredith be placed in the box for sentence. Meredith had been found guilty by a jury of having stolen an automobile two days previously. His Lordship said: "I am going to let you out on suspended sentence if you should offend again. If you should offend again before me within a year I will have to sentence you. You must understand that you owe our Sovereign Lord the King $500, but you will not be called upon to pay this if you are not brought up in court within the next year. You have a good record, and some respects I would like to have a good one in all. You may go."

MARRIED AT NANAIMO

NANAIMO, Oct. 28.—The Fall Assizes concluded yesterday afternoon when the jury brought in a verdict of "not guilty" in the case of Shiras, a Japanese, charged with theft of money in a gambling house in Cumberland. Upon receipt of the verdict, Mr. Justice Murphy thanked the jury for their service in the case and congratulated Mr. Roselli, of Vancouver, the defendant, upon winning the case, after which he asked that the prisoner Meredith be placed in the box for sentence. Meredith had been found guilty by a jury of having stolen an automobile two days previously. His Lordship said: "I am going to let you out on suspended sentence if you should offend again. If you should offend again before me within a year I will have to sentence you. HEALTH CENTRE
MEETING AT DUNCAN

Proposal to Have Nurse Appointed to Work Among Indians of Cowichan

DUNCAN, Oct. 28.—An executive meeting of the Cowichan Electoral District Health Centre Committee was held yesterday afternoon, with the following members present in the chair. Other representatives included Mr. G. Stelino, Cobble Hill Institute; Mrs. T. Pitt, City of Duncan; Mrs. G. G. Henderson, Municipality of North Cowichan; Mrs. R. H. Whidden, Cowichan Women's Institute, and secretary of the organization.

Mr. Moore reported most encouraging progress regarding the proposal to locate a nurse at work among the Indians. He had been in communication with Mr. K. F. Duncan, M.P., and with Mr. W. F. Duthieburn, Chief Inspector of Indian Affairs at Victoria, and had had a personal interview with Mr. A. H. Lomas, the Indian Agent here, and had received splendid encouragement. To have a nurse among the Indians, whose sympathies are with the Indians, is a point that was strongly emphasized by the committee and all interested as of paramount importance.

The resolution passed by the Cowichan Women's Institute at their special meeting on Saturday last regarding a proposal to erect a tubercular ward in Duncan was endorsed with the following amendment: "That the Health Board be allowed to erect a tubercular ward containing not more than two beds in conjunction with the proposed isolation ward, on condition that the buildings conform to existing regulations, namely, that they be erected at least 100 yards from school or habitation.

SETTLER LOSES HOUSE AND ALL EFFECTS

Fire at Port Renfrew Inflights Hardship on Rev. W. Ellison, Old Resident

PORT RENFREW, Oct. 27.—Heavy freshets have occurred in the rivers San Juan and Gordon, which at this season of the year sometimes change their channels, opening up new outlets and leaving dead jaws for some future offshoots of nature to clear. The three mills are standing idle for want of hands and work, with all the wealth of raw material around them.

One of the first settlers, Rev. W. Ellison, who has resided on the Coast for the last thirty years, lost his house with all his belongings by fire while he was away, and has destroyed his Winter's usual supplies for man and beast, which have to be got in before the Winter storms make it difficult to effect a landing. He has now left the valley, with many others, seeking work in some other place less hard of endurance, and disheartened.

Twenty-five years ago the first settlers came to the coast, a road twenty miles in length to connect the town with the outer world. Every successive political campaign the same promise has been given, but so far has failed to materialize. Is it to be wondered at, with freight at $6 a ton, passenger tickets $3 single for a short journey of sixty miles from the coast, the place has failed to retain its visitors or to develop its resources?

The SS. Macquarie brought down twenty passengers from this place the last trip, mostly men seeking work, and by the passenger and freight sheet this place is known in past years to have been the best paying port on the Coast line. But all this is being changed, and the place will shortly be nothing to be called for except a few letters, even though it is the customs house office for the Coast.

The teeth of the harlequin snake are arranged like those of a cat.

NANAIMO RED CROSS
ANNUAL MEETING

Reports for Year Presented and Appointments to Committees Made by Society Members

NANAIMO, Oct. 27.—The annual report of the Local Branch of the Canadian Red Cross Society for the year 1920-1921, was read at a meeting of the society held yesterday, and was as follows:

There were eleven regular meetings, two executive and four special. The officers for the year were as follows: Chairman, Mrs. J. F. Davidson; first vice-chairman, Mrs. McQuade; second vice-chairman, Mrs. Hasle; honorary secretary, Miss E. Woodcock; treasurer, Mrs. F. McRae; honorary treasurer, Mrs. F. McRae; executive committee, Mrs. O. Paul, Miss P. Freeman, Mrs. O. Erickson, Mrs. J. B. Hodges, Mrs. G. Horns, Mrs. F. Mercer, Miss J. Legham, Mrs. L. Peake, Mr. Pollock, Mrs. W. Molin. The society also organized committees to help raise money throughout the year by means of the Thanksgiving Police Dance, Armistice Tea, Tag Day in November for the British War Relief Fund, Easter Ball, rent from curtains, dances to celebrate the King's birthday, prizes from 24th of May parade and from the membership enrollment campaign. The money raised by the society totalled over the sum of $1,000.00, the amount of which was held December 2, 3 and 4. In March the society held a patriotic concert in the Bijou Theatre when Pta. Peat delivered a fine lecture on "Patriotism." Members of the society assisted in the May Queen contest. Membership enrollment campaign was held throughout Canada, and the local branch did its canvassing during June and July. The society decided to join with the Nanaimo Loyal Club in the formation of a Child's Welfare Society. The chairman and members of the society are very grateful to all who have in any way helped the society in its year's work.

INQUEST ON BODY OF LITTLE BOY HELD

The funeral of the little one will take place tomorrow from the residence of Mr. H. E. Smith, South Five Acres, Esq.

and it is thought that was the cause of his death.

The funeral of the late Richard Hill took place yesterday afternoon from the family residence, Pirieau Street, to the Mansions Cemetery, Rev. Mr. Ewing conducting the burial service. The following gentlemen acted as pallbearers: Wm. Perrin, V. Freer, Wm. Hawley, A. Tait, J. Ewing, C. Ruines.

NANAIMO, Oct. 27.—An inquest will be held today on the body of Douglas Beddington, who died in the Nanaimo Hospital on Tuesday night from the effects of burns received when the Beddington home burned down at Cassidy.

Roy, a younger brother of the deceased, who was seriously burned in the fire, is making steady progress towards recovery. Roy was even more seriously burned than his older brother, but Douglas swallowed more smoke,

Rinso

RINSO—not a cake soap, nor a chip soap, nor a washing powder, but pure granules so rich in cleaning value that dirt is loosened while the clothes are soaking. Yet so harmless that your things are as safe in the RINSO suds as in pure water alone.

RINSO is different from anything ever before produced—

It is fine granules of purest and highest quality ingredients ever used in a family laundry soap.

It cleans by soaking in the rich foaming RINSO suds for a few hours and then thorough rinsing in either warm or cold water. Even the worst spots, the collar bands, cuff edges or hems, need only a slight rubbing between the hands to make them, too, perfectly clean.

Just soak the clothes with Rinso. A few hours later rinse them thoroughly in either warm or cold water. That's all. They're clean.

TORONTO

If you have a washing machine—

Soak the clothes over-night in the usual Rinso way. The cleaned and rinsed suds will do. In the morning operate the machine for a few minutes and the clothes are perfectly clean—even the most soiled spots.
